From the Board of Properties

If you are looking for a flexible, small time commitment to serve the church, consider joining the mowing crew!

The grounds are divided into 3 areas consisting of 45-60 minutes of mowing time. There are no assignments, pick an area and week you are able.

The only question left, are you brave enough for the zero-turn monster?

Bible Study Opportunities

Have you struggled with "finding" time each day to set aside for actively being in God's Word? Do you often think that you have to tend to one more task first? There will be no better time than NOW to find the time to be in God's Word first.

What does God's Word mean? How do I apply it to my daily life? First, one must determine to start with a steady, every-day-doable pace, realizing that it doesn't have to be spectacular. Second, one should have a good, Bible-based devotion, either printed or emailed, which will look deeper into the supporting Scripture readings. Then, pick one or two thoughts, sentences, or verses and write them down on an electronic document so that you can access it wherever you are, and strive to apply it throughout the day. I will ponder all your work, and meditate on your mighty deeds (Psalm 77:12)

There is an undeniable peace in knowing you have started the day with your heavenly Father. ... the Lord hears when I call to him (Psalm 4:3b).

We do have two very good devotion books available quarterly on the Narthex table. They are the Portals of Prayer and Meditations. If you don't already, please pick one up and strengthen your walk with your heavenly Father.

Don't forget that we also have two opportunities every week for a more in-depth study of God's Word together.

- Sunday Morning at 10:45am—We are currently studying The Holy Gospel According to St. Matthew
- Wednesday Morning at 10:00am—We are currently studying The Lutheran confessions

These studies are all well underway, but it is never too late to jump in. Join us for in-depth study as we explore the gifts of forgiveness and life which come to us through God's Word.

From Your President

Have you ever wondered why the Chancel looks so good every Sunday? Or who takes care of the communion vessels and cups? That would be the Altar Guild. Every week these devoted individuals care for the Chancel on a rotating schedule. They don't ask for help, but they would appreciate it. With enough volunteers a commitment would be less than one time per month. Please consider helping with these duties. If you would like to know more, Cherie Hill is a great source of information.
